

“3rd Annual Cookie Walk”
St. Michael’s Ukrainian Orthodox Church will hold its annual COOKIE WALK

A Celebration of the Holidays-
Let Us Do the Baking for You!

St. Michael’s Ukrainian Orthodox Church, located at 74 Harris Avenue, Woonsocket, RI will be holding its annual “Cookie Walk” on Saturday, December 20 from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm with thousands of homemade holiday cookies. This event is open to the public. Complimentary coffee, tea, and hot cocoa will be available. Festive music will be provided by St. Michael’s Brass Choir.

At the Cookie Walk, which was started in 2006, folks pick up a cookie box and walk among a maze of homemade treats filling up their box with favorites from the dozens of tables loaded with homemade cookies and candies. Filled boxes are weighed and payment is made by the pound. Last year, more than 10,000 cookies were lovingly prepared and donated by parishioners. All of the cookies are homemade- no store-bought or slice-and-bake- only homemade. Tables loaded with fresh-baked, homemade cookies of every shape and flavor will be available.

St. Michael’s is most well-known for the Ladies Sodality Ukrainian Kitchen which offers authentic Ukrainian cuisine, including varenyky (pierogies), holubsti (stuffed cabbage), and borscht several times throughout the year. Our talented cooks are also extraordinary bakers. Volunteers began heating up their ovens in the fall and each year new and creative varieties of holiday cookies are unveiled on the morning of the Cookie Walk. This is an event not to be missed. Arrive early for the best selections.

Founded in 1941, St. Michael’s parish is a vital part of the Woonsocket community for over fifty (50) years. The Church has flourished and prospered within the community, satisfying not only the religious needs of its parishioners, but also contributing to social and civic events in the City of Woonsocket.
